Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. These standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effective constraints of the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

The American Schools of Oriental Research as of June 30, 2019 and 2018, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Adoption of New Accounting Standard

Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2016-14, Not-for-Profit Entities (Topic 958): Presentation of Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Entities. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Years Ended June 30, 2019 and 2018

NOTE A LETTING DE TIMOUTING DE LICHTANIZATA DE CONTRA DE LICHTANIZATA DE LICHT

The Organization: The American Schools of Oriental Research (ASOR/the Organization), established in 1900 was incorporated as a not-for-profit public charity in 1935. ASOR is an international organization whose mission is to initiate, encourage, and support research into and public understanding of, the history and subtures of the Near East and wider Mediterranean, from the earliest times. The principal sources of revenue are from scholarly journals and books, annual programs, membership dues, grants and contributions.

Basis of Accounting: ASOR prepares its financial statements in accordance with U.S. generally accounting principles (GAAP). This basis of accounting involves the application of accrual accounting; consequently, revenues and gains are recognized when earned, and expenses and losses are recognized when incurred.

Adoption of New Accounting Standard: The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with FASB Accounting Standards Undate (ASU) 2016-14. Not-for-Profit Entities (Topic 958): Presentation of Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Entities, which was first effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2017.

ASOR has implemented ASU 2016-14 retrospectively for all periods presented.

Revenue Recognition / Deferred Revenue: Revenue is derived primarily from memberships, registrations, subscriptions, and publication sales. Revenues from memberships and subscriptions are recognized ratably over the related period (normally one year). Any unearned amount is presented as deferred revenue in the statement of financial position. Publication sales are recognized at the time of sale.

Recognition of Support / Conditional Awards: Contributions, that are restricted by the Jones are reported as increases in net assets without donor restrictions if the restrictions expire (that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose contributions are reported as increases in net assets with donor restrictions. When a restriction expires, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

NOTE G -- NET ASSETS WITH DONOR RESTRICTIONS, HELD UNDER ENDOWMENTS

FASB ASC 958-205 provides guidance on the net asset classification of board-designated and donor-restricted Management Institutional Funds Act). ASOR holds only donor-restricted endowment tunds. Therefore, unless stated otherwise in the gift instrument, assets held under endowments are considered donor-restricted assets until appropriated for expenditure by the Organization. Endowment net assets are disaggregated further by ASOR as to which amounts are subject to appropriation by the Organization or to investment in perpetuity. ASOR considers the following to be subject gifts to endowments, and (3) accumulations to endowments made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instruments. Net investment income is considered available for appropriation unless otherwise directed by the gift instrument.

The Organization has adopted investment and spending policies for endowment assets that attempt to provide a predictable stream of funding to programs supported by its endowments while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of those endowment assets over the long-term.
