

You can now purchase the link to the recording of any webinar. You can also purchase the bundle package of all 9 webinars and the "Making May Matter" Webinarathon event from the 2020-2021 season.

Please e-mail membership@asor.org for purchase details.

Dates:

Members: $5 per recording

Non-Members: $10 per recording

Bundle: $75

When Women Ruled the World—An Egyptian View

Kara Cooney

Translating Outreach into Action: Cultivating Heritage Volunteerism in Libya

Ahmad Emrage and William Reynolds

My Life as An Archaeologist—How My Mind Has Changed, and How It Has Stayed the Same

Larry Geraty

Jezebel and Naboth's Vineyard—What Recent Excavations at Jezreel Reveal About the Bloody Biblical Story

Jennie Ebeling

Identities in the Age of Internationalism: Tel Lachish in the Late Bronze Age

Felix Höflmayer

My Life as An Archaeologist—How My Mind Has Changed, and How It Has Stayed the Same

Stuart Swiny

Life and Death on Petra's North Ridge

Megan A. Perry

Black in Ancient History: Disciplinary Divides and a Call for Change

Debora Heard

7 Years After 1177—What Has Changed Since I Published My Book

Eric H. Cline

My Life as An Archaeologist—How My Mind Has Changed, and How It Has Stayed the Same

Carol Meyers

Pious Textual Forgeries: From Shapira to the Museum of the Bible

Christopher Rollston, Katherine Jones, and Thomas Kline

